Tortuguero Town Tour - Excursion

Tortuguero Town Tour, and every tour you take. Every visitor wants to remember the beauty of this area, and as the saying goes, "A picture is worth a thousand words." The town of Tortuguero has a fairly basic life style. Wash is done by hand and hung on trees, bushes, and occasionally a clothes line. With the frequency of showers, sometimes it hangs there for days. As you walk through the town you will find children at play like anywhere else in the world. There are no cars in the island town of Tortuguero. What would they do with them? There are a few bicycles, and many children who want a turn riding them. While there are a few shops and restaurants in Tortuguero, be sure to walk among the little foot paths among the houses. These paths are the roads of the town. To venture down them is to discover rustic charm as if from another time. Includes: guide. What to bring: camera, repellent, cap, sunblock, sunglasses, rain jacket, and money.

Bird Watching Tour at Carara National Park - Excursion, Regular

This incredible protected area measures about 4,700 Hectares and is home to approximately 48% of Costa Rica's aviary species. This Jaco tour will show you the importance of the region, as it is situated in a transitional region between the tropical dry forest and the humid pacific rainforest. This Jaco tour showcases colorful species of flora and fauna from a varied ecosystem. You will be able to spot the Scarlet Macaw, Collared Aracari and various monkey specimens. Early in the morning or afternoon, our expert guides will pick you up at your hotel. They will lead you through wonderful and vibrant trails in this park where you will be able to appreciate the richness of Costa Rican flora and fauna. In this beautiful park there are two trails: Las Aráceas y Laguna Meándrica which are perfect to see the flora and fauna. Carara is in a transition zone between the dry zone to the North and the more humid one to the south, it has a very rich and diverse flora with more than 1,400 species of plants. Carara park is crossed by several streams, most of them permanent. During the dry season, Carara becomes an oasis of freshness and greenness. To the northeast of the park, the seasonal flooding of the river Grande de Tárcoles forms many wetlands. The largest of these areas measures 600 meters long, 40 meters wide and is 2 meters deep. These wetlands become the habitat of aquatic and wading birds as well as many reptiles and amphibians. During the tour our guests have the opportunity to see over 80 species of birds, We offer the visit of three ecosystems, such as the famous Tarcoles River, this river is one of the largest rivers in CR, also you can see one of the largest populations of American Crocodiles. Also the tour is complemented with a visit to the mangrove forest, this being one of the most fragile ecosystems that we have, and at the end of the tour you will visit the river mouth/beach to have the opportunity to see our amazing Gulf of Nicoya and a lot of sea birds! What's included: Private transportation from your hotel, Bilingual guide, Park entrance fees, Hike on one of the trails, Snacks & Soft Drinks. What to bring: Comfortable clothes, Sun block, Insect repellent, Hiking or athletic shoes, Camera, Binoculars, Raingear (raincoat or a poncho).
